Read this document completely before proceeding with the unpacking and installing of the servers.

1. Review the TIP N TELL and the container for any damages during shipment. If you notice damage, refer to the Sun Fire™ 15K Unpacking Guide for damage-claim instructions. If you notice any damage, email a damage report to bvtn-traffic@sun.com, your contact for shipping or delivery problems.

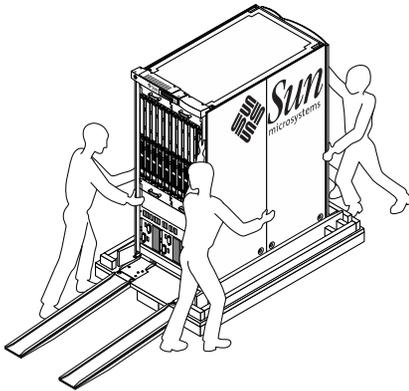

Note – Contact your local service provider. Installation, verification, and maintenance must be performed only by qualified service personnel.

2. Separate all of the boxes by the serial numbers listed on the shipping label. Confirm that all of the boxes are present.

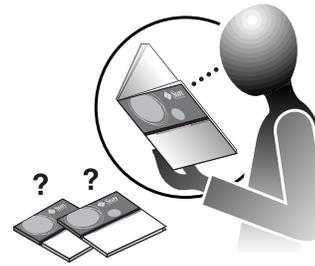

Caution – Before moving the system, consider the elevator capacity and its below-threshold drop possibility when carrying a maximum load.

3. Refer to the appropriate hardware documentation for suggested uncrating instructions.

4. Locate the documentation in the shipping kit box. If you have not already completed the tables in the Cluster Platform 15K/9960 Site Planning Guide, complete the tables in this guide. The guide also contains information about the facility power requirements, physical specifications, security and network planning, and the site planning checklist prior to installation.

5. Install the Sun Fire 15K systems following the steps outlined in the Sun Fire 15K System Hardware Installation and De-Installation Guide.

6. In the event of a system failure, refer to the following documents, included in the documentation packet:

- Sun Fire 15K System Service Manual
- Sun Fire 15K System Overview

7. Install the Sun StorEdge™ 9960 storage array and controller cabinet following the steps outlined in the Sun StorEdge 9960 Installation Guide.
8. Install the expansion cabinet following the steps outlined in the Cluster Platform 15K/9960 Installation Guide.

9. After following the steps for the installation and verification of the system, complete the Installation Report, located in the system documentation packet, and return it by using email, fax, or mail to the address indicated on the form.
